Queen Elsa's follow and freeze

All of Arendelle follows Queen Elsa's commands.
How well can you follow your partner?

.....

How to play...

1. One of you is Elsa and is in charge. The other is her subject and must copy her as she moves.
2. When Elsa stops moving, the subject must hold their balance very still and remain stable.
3. Follow again when Elsa starts moving again.
4. How creative and energetic can you be?

Don't forget

Keep your muscles firm and strong.
Fix your eyes on something still.

Kakamora target

Moana and Maui need to defend their boat from the fierce Kakamora pirates! Can you help fend off the Kakamora?

How to play...

1. Choose 4-5 players to be Kakamora pirates.
2. Another player stands in a hoop as if they are Moana or Maui on a boat.
3. The Kakamora have two bean bags or balls each.
4. Standing around the hoop, two steps away, throw or roll your bean bags or balls into the hoop without Moana or Maui catching or stopping it from landing.
5. How many can you or your team accurately throw without them being intercepted?

Don't forget

Keep your eyes on the target and aim carefully.
When defending, use your hands and feet to help keep the objects out.

Mater's pick up truck dump

Mater might not be a high-tech race car, but he can carry and deliver any load. How much can you deliver without dropping anything?

How to play...

1. Mark a start and a drop off point.
2. In pairs, one of you kneels on all fours like you are Mater the pick up truck.
3. Your partner balances bean bags, quoits or balls onto your back.
4. Travel and deliver your load to the drop off point. Swap roles with your partner, help to load them up and return to the start.
5. How many objects have survived the journey?

Don't forget

Keep your back flat and hold your tummy in tightly.
Keep your head up when travelling.

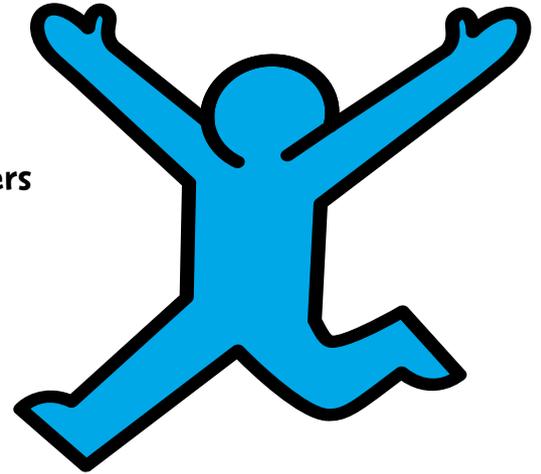

The Beast's rose protector

The Beast keeps the magic rose in a glass case to keep it safe.
Can you protect your rose too?

How to play...

1. Line up in equal teams with your hands on the shoulders or waist of the person in front. Each team is a rose.
2. Tuck a bib or scarf into the waistband of the person at the back of each line. This is the petal.
3. Chase the other teams to grab their petal, and protect your own without breaking your line. Last rose with a petal wins!

Don't forget

Stay on your toes when protecting the rose. Be ready to move in any direction. Grabbers, keep your eyes on the target.
